The Mediterranean University of Reggio Calabria is equipped with the Plan for Gender Equality

On September 29, 2020, the Academic Senate and the Administration Board of the Mediterranean University of Reggio Calabria (UNIRC) approved the Gender Equality Plan (GEP) prepared by the GEECCO H2020 project team.

The GEP is a tool that the Mediterranean University of Reggio Calabria has adopted in order to promote gender equality aimed at ensuring to every individual, combating any form of discrimination, equal conditions for participation in academic life and for the acquisition of tools for inclusion in economic, political and social life, regardless of gender, religion and belief, race and ethnic origin, disability, age, sexual orientation.

The Mediterranean University of Reggio Calabria supports the formulation of the Gender Equality Plan also as a measure of implementation of Agenda 2030, proposed by the General Assembly of the United Nations, in order to contribute to the achievement of sustainable development at the global level.

The GEP is one of the main actions foreseen by the Project "Gender Equality in Engineering through Communication and Commitment" (GEECCO), funded by the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme (Grant agreement No 741128).
